SOME of the farmers in this county are busy this week plowing.

The Knights of Honor will meet in annual session at Louisville, April 18th.

A BLOCK of buildings and a distillery burned at Covington last night about eight o'clock.

The wheat crop in the vicinity of Lexington is reported seriously injured by the cold weather.

ALBERT GREENWOOD has a novelty in the way of a bulletin board. It certainly attracts attention.

The steamer Big Sandy left on her second excursion to New Orleans on Tuesday afternoon.

Roscoe Farnell left for Carlisle this morning by rail to appear for trial in the Nicholas Circuit Court.

J. S. KIMBRELL, a merchant at Bethel, Kentucky, has made an assignment for the benefit of his creditors.

HAW in Fayette County is selling at six cents a pound. Commission merchants, principally, are the buyers.

The Rev. John Barbour will preach at the First Presbyterian Church this evening at 7:30 o'clock. All are invited.

Among the graduates at the Cincinnati school of Pharmacy was D. R. Henderson, son of Dr. J. A. Henderson, of this city.

The city authorities should consider the feasibility of cleaning the alleys as well as the main streets. Some of them are very filthy.

Look out for an announcement by Neibitt & McKrell this week. It will contain important information to close buyers of dry goods.

The charge that Charles Lynch and three other white men outraged a negro woman, at Cynthiaville, proved to have been without foundation.

The wholesale merchants, at Lexington, state that the trade has greatly improved and is much larger now than at the corresponding time last year.

The morning sessions of the Mammoth rink will be exclusively for ladies who will be admitted free of charge. The ladies will be admitted free also in the afternoon.

Dr. JAMES SHACKLEFORD, trustee of Asa R. Burgess, has an advertisement elsewhere offering for sale Mr. Burgess' stock of dry goods at very low prices for cash. Read the advertisement.

GOVERNOR HINDMAN has informed Neal to be hanged at Grayson next Friday, that he will not interfere. John Sexton, the murderer of George Routen, will be executed on the same day at Barboursville.

During one of the cold days this winter Mr. W. H. Tarleton, of Washington, counted the seed contained in one tobacco pod and found the number to be 6,510. He accomplished the task in two hours and thirty minutes.

MESSES SAMUEL PERLUS & CO., manufacturers, No. 77, East Second street, have an advertisement in this issue of the BULLETIN. All who need anything in their line will do well to read it. They make cutting and repairing a specialty.

SMOKE "Our Finest." C. R. & Co.

A CITIZEN of Lexington has invented a brick machine which he claims "will make brick equal to the old fashioned hand-made article." The supposition with the people who use brick machines is that they make an article much superior to the hand-made brick.

There is a sensation to-day among the brass-buttoned corps at Hechinger & Co.'s clothing store, caused by the arrival of a large stock of goods for the spring trade. The boys are busy opening the stock, which embraces everything new in the clothing line, and by another day will it ready to exhibit to their customers. Prices, we are assured, will be surprisingly low.

The following notice of the bank of Orlando, Florida, with which Mr. Nat. Payntz, formerly of this city, is connected, is taken from the Orlando correspondence of the New Orleans Times-Democrat:

An excellent financial institution was established November 16, 1882. It possesses ample facilities for doing a general banking business and is rapidly extending its operations. It was the pioneer bank in South Florida, there being no bank south of Jacksonville, Fla., at the time of its organization. The bank rents exchange to any part of the United States, makes collections and forwards proceeds promptly. The officers of the bank are Messrs. Charles Joy, President; Nat. Payntz, Cashier, and W. B. Newton, Auditor. The bank is well managed and has a sound and efficient finances and has an extensive acquaintance. Mr. Joy resides in Wells River, Vt., during the summer and in Orlando in the winter. Messrs. Payntz and Newton are Kentuckians, former gentlemen residents of Urbana, Ohio, for sixteen and the latter two years. The correspondents of this bank are the Bank of Jacksonville, Jacksonville, Fla., and the U. S. National Bank, and Louisville, Alexander & Co., New York.

TONIGHT the genteel necktie party at the Mayville rink, corner of Second and Wall streets, promises to be a very interesting and amusing entertainment. The gentleman wearing the longest necktie as a prize one connoisseur's ticket good for forty admissions, and the second longest twenty complimentary tickets. Contestants must wear their ties and skirt in them without wrapping around the body. The children's fancy dress carnival Friday night will be a boom. On this event the smallest child in costumes on skates that skates alone three times around the rink will receive as a premium a connoisseur's ticket.

Mr. ALBERT GREENWOOD whose advertisement is printed in another column is reciting just now a very handsome line of wall papers, window shades and decorations, which has been selected with rare good taste. He has also a large stock of paints and painter's materials of all kinds, and a full assortment of artist supplies. Mr. A. B. Greenwood one of our most experienced painters, is connected with this house, and is ready at all times to give to its customers the benefit of his advice, either in the selection of papers or the preparation of paints. You are invited to call and ascertain prices.

THE GRACE HAWTHORNE COMPANY in Queen, or an American girl," drew another large audience to the opera house last night. The play was produced in a way that called forth the most enthusiastic applause, and stamped Miss Hawthorne as an actress of very great promise. The company throughout is one of the best that has ever visited Mayville, and will be cordially welcomed back when it chooses to return.

The opera house managers, we are informed, will endeavor to make another engagement with this troupe in the early future.

AN effort is being made to divert the cattle trade of Texas from St. Louis and Chicago to Cincinnati. The parties interested in the Texas and St. Louis narrow gauge have joined other business men at Cincinnati to run cattle over the narrow gauge, getting special rates from Cairo, Louisville, Indianapolis, Cleveland, Columbus, and Pittsburg will be supplied, after this arrangement is completed, from Cincinnati, saving time and freight as much as 20 per cent. over the present prices.

A Banker's Very Profitable Investment.

The report sent out last week that T. M. Thornton, banker, of this city, had drawn $75,000, it being the capital price of the Louisiana State Lottery of this month, is true, and what is more, the money has been paid over without deduction or discount. It is said that it is better to be born lucky, but Mr. Thornton has the advantage of being born rich and lucky.—(St. Louis [Ill.] Leader, January 22nd).

THERE is a good deal of excitement in the neighborhood of Festoon, Lewis County, growing out of an assault made by William Cole and Alfred Cole, his father, upon Elbridge Norman, a visitor at Cole's house. Norman had his leg broken and was badly bitten by a dog that pounced upon him during the affray. The assault was committed last Thursday. We have not been informed of the cause of the quarrel. Norman's friends are very indignant and further trouble is expected.

Miss Maggie Kiener, of Cincinnati, is visiting friends in this city.

Miss Nettie Bolen Smith, an interesting little daughter of Dr. Thomas H. N. Smith, is considered one of the most graceful roller skaters in the city.

Judge Garrett S. Wall, one of the attorneys for the prosecution, left for Carlisle this morning, to attend the trial of the case of the Commonwealth vs. Farwell, Measers, Cochran and Worthington, attorneys on the same side, left the evening before. Judge Thomas F. Hargis will also assist the prosecution. Messrs. Plaster & Son and Whilaker & Robertson appear for the defense.

A "Women's Exchange."

The sign was displayed, and somebody went in to see if a man who died of his wife could go there and trade her off for another one. Found it was impracticable. The best kind of exchange for women is that which is promoted by Brown's Iron Bitters. Exchange poor health for good. Broken down and debilitated ladies with impoverished blood find vigor and joy in the enrichment which this prince of tonics bestows on them.

DURING the past season 6,825 bushels of English blue grass seed were grown in the Germantown precinct, and in the Fern Leaf precinct 4,615 bushels. The price we believe, ranges from $2 to $2.50 a bushel. These figures have been kindly furnished by the County Assessor.

KNOTTY PROBLEMS.

LORD FITZMAURICE ON THE QUESTION OF PEACE OR WAR.

Peace in Paris—"Miss America"—Indignation in Ireland Over a Missing Flag.
Leader Killed—Informer Dead.
General Foreign News.

LONDON, March 25.—Lord Edmund Fitzmaurice, under secretary of foreign affairs in the course of an interview, during which much was said of the Russian problem, the under secretary answered a question whether the British government had advised the government in parliament about Afghan diplomacy complicated the affair. He said: "These inquiries are intended, of course, to injure Mr. Gladstone, but they have the effect, as well, of discrediting England in the eyes of Europe. It is not the Irish party alone that keeps up this form of Parliamentary teasing, but the men on the opposition benches, whose patriotism should cover above this partisan method."

"There is a strong feeling abroad that the government is withholding important information in this matter. Is that true?"

"Yes, in the sense that I do not suppose to be true that the government has the matter under advisement, but it is a whole matter which would be manifestly public interest to publish what we have at present when the next mail bag may reverse our relations with Russia. The fact is, that so far as the movements on either side of the frontier concerned, the foreign office knows only a little more than what has been already published. I have no desire to underrate the gravity of the present crisis, but I am not prepared to say that the steps we have taken prove successful in warding off (panning) well, well, a collision that can prove of small value to either country."

During the interview, a question from the reporter being a dispatch announcing the death of the British minister at Peking, whose loss Lord Edmund Fitzmaurice lamented with feeling, as that of the most valiant representative of England in the far East, and of one who had held important trusty posts in every department. His remarks on the diplomatic relations with China or Japan. The under secretary of foreign affairs was perhaps particularly reticent, but from his manner of speaking it was evident he appreciated immediate military complications, and spoke of the pending skirmish near Shinkin, the first afternoon dispatch about which was incomplete and looked serious for the British troops.

Paris Affairs.

PARIS, March 25.—Financial circles take a brighter view of the situation than they did previously, and are more optimistic, promising and paying each other visits, and seldom go out of their way to say disagreeable things of each other; diplomacy has settled the financial part of the Egyptian question, and is now busy with smoothing away the difficulties of the moment. Paris is still recovering from the alarm about Afghanistan. Doubtless the timely speech of the old German Kaiser will complete the pacific work already done.

"Miss America" is the title of a new novel which is too much talked of just now. The author is M. Felicien Champaur, a bohemian of letters, who made some stir two years ago with a book called "Dinan-Sanjour," which was received with great enthusiasm, but hardly. In "Miss America" he gives us what he imagines to be a serious picture of the high-spirited, pure, but independent American girl, the daughter of a respectable millionaire, who after experiencing all over of her rivals in Paris salons, falls in love with a wretched French Don Juan, Comte de Veran, and in the last chapter marries him. Incidentally the author describes in detail the fashions, music, dances, professional beauties, and pianist waltz dances, and introduces us in turn to the Concours Hippique, to the ballet of the Edén theater, to a costume ball at the Comte de Veran's, and other episodes of fast life in Paris. The book has not been much noticed, however, but like the memoirs of Andreotti, will be widely read. Paris loves scandal.

"Miss America."

The State Flag.

DUBLIN, March 25.—Great excitement and indignation prevails throughout the city among the sympathizers of the lord mayor over the loss of the flag which had recently displayed over his Mansion house on the occasions of fits or events of state. Some students belonging to a medical college, after learning of the threat of the lord mayor to lower the flag, gathered together and concocted a scheme by which they would foul the lord mayor in carrying off his threat. They decided to obtain possession of the flag. A number of students, armed with clubs, made their way to the building on some pretext, and stole the national ensign. The revolutionaries are jubilant over the nationalists' misfortune and are largely enjoying the joke, as they term it.

Dead and Injured.

DUBLIN, March 25.—Joe Smith, the man who pointed out James Connery to the police when the latter was assassinated in Phoenix Park, has just died. Smith has been in bad health for months before death and suffered greatly from fear of being assassinated by revolutionaries, because of certain information which he had given to the police concerning their movements. Another informer, Michael Kavanaugh, driver of the car in which the assassin escaped, is now confined in a lunatic asylum. He is violently insane.

A Leader Killed.

SUAKIN, March 25.—Faggah, the most prominent leader of the Ottoman Dervishes, was killed while leading a charge on the British column on the road to Tannay by Gamil McNeil. He was the most daring of Osman's officers and had distinguished himself in more than one encounter with the British.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 25.—A special agent of the car has been sojourning here, investigating the secret of the alliance between the Amakia Commercial company and the Russian government. In 1870 the fur monopoly secured a twenty years' lease of the Beiring Islands from Russia. A law of that year prohibited the use of the imperial land for foreign corporations, the difficulty was met by giving a St. Petersburg financier a place on the list of shareholders. Notwithstanding this opposition has sprung up against renewing the lease, which grants the right to kill 40,000 seals per annum and the owner appointed a commissioner to investigate.
